In the early morning hours of Saturday, January 27, 2018, at least 4 residents living in the Kingswood subdivision, off Harrison Road, reported several thefts of property. Unknown suspect(s) attempted to break into one garage, damaging the door in the process. One resident reported the suspect(s) entered the home while they were asleep, and stole 2 sets of car keys. One of the victim's vehicles was stolen and later located in a residential area off Lafayette Boulevard in Fredericksburg. Another victim reports their unlocked vehicle was entered and a back pack containing electronics was stolen. A fourth victim had his motorcycle ignition punched and the motorcycle was taken from the home and left in the roadway. He also reported their child's small ATV stolen, but it was located parked near a neighbor's home.

Anyone who may have seen anything out of the ordinary January 27, 2018 between midnight and 4:00AM is asked to contact Spotsylvania Crime Solvers. at 540-582-5822 or 1-800-928-5822.
